Gone . . . But Not Forgotten

PAUL MAURIAT

Not rock instrumental, but Mauriat kept the instrumental flag flying in 1967 with his lush orchestral hit "Love Is Blue". He was born in Marseilles on March 4, 1925 and had his own orchestra by the age of 17, preferring jazz and lighter music to the classical scene. Love Is Blue was written for the 1967 Eurovision song contest but a vocal version by Vicky Leandros did not fare well. The orchestral version, however, became a huge hit worldwide. It was awarded a gold record in 1968. It spawned a large repertoire of "easy listening" albums. Mauriat was also a prolific arranger and composer, writing for Charles Aznavour, Mireille Mathieu and others. He died on November 3, 2006.

KIM ADDS: Jeff Becks version of LOVE IS BLUE released in 1968 and produced by Mickie Most was one of the first and finest post twang era intros to hit the airwaves and hinted at the style that the guitarist would go onto to explore on his eponymous 1972 instrumental album BLOW BY BLOW.

BRUCE GARY

Bruce was best known as the drummer with The Knack, who scored a big hit in 1979 with "My Sharona". He was called on to fill in with The Ventures after Mel Taylor's untimely death in 1996. He completed The Ventures Japanese tour and was expected to be a permanent member of the group. However, as we all know, Mel's son Leon has since occupied the drum stool. Bruce Gary went on to record with a wide variety of artists and recorded a series of drum tuition videos. He passed away on August 22, 2006 at the age of 54. He died, ironically, at the same hospital where Mel passed away.

Yes, it's the cricket season, and Billy Birmingham (aka The Twelfth Man) was at #1 on the charts again with "Boned". And Channel Nine still uses "New Horizons" as it's theme for the Ashes coverage. What many of you don't know is that Shads' drummer Brian Bennett wrote the theme as part of his library recordings for KPM (the largest English record company which reproduced library music for use in films, TV shows and commercials). When the Shadows toured here in 1985, Brian was surprised to be presented with a PLATINUM record for the theme, as used in the Twelfth Man's first album "It's Just Not Cricket". The recording was 1984's biggest selling single. A number of press cuttings were reproduced in my book "The Shadows In Australia" (now out of print) - one of which reported Brian as saying "I wrote the score for New Horizons several years ago. I had no idea the music had become so strongly with the cricket until I heard Billy's record".

A BOOMERANG FROM TOMMY?

Back in 2G4W #11, in my review of Tommy Emmanuel's "The Mystery" CD, I pleaded, "more electric please, Tommy". Does Tommy read 2G4W? The latest (Vol.57 - Jan/Feb 2007) issue of "Australian Guitar" magazine features Tommy on the cover, with the quote "I want to get back in touch with playing electric". In the five-page spread, Dan Lander interviews Tommy, who says, "A lot of people, especially in Australia, when they used to come to my shows, would ask "Are you going to do the band again? Are you ever going to play electric again? We want to see you play a Telecaster again". And I still have all those guitars, and I would love to do it again".

Look out for a new Sydney group, THE TWILIGHT SHADOWS, led by guitarist Rob Amos, originally with 60's Newcastle outfit THE COMETS. The band played its inaugural gig last month in Windsor, supported by young guns VJ King Jr. and Bryan Browne. Rob was also reported to be using a distortion pedal. (Shock Horror!)

Back in "2G4W" #11 I intimated that Jamie Records were becoming extinct. Not so!! They're back with – not "Girls! Girls! Girls!" but "$1,000,000 Worth Of Twang", and what a cracker it is! Included are some of Duane's very best hits – remixed in "stereo" by Tom Moulton, and including three "bonus" tracks not on the original album. The resultant sound is sensational, and this is one CD that everyone should have in their collection! The Twang is definitely STILL THE THANG!!

DUANE EDDY UPDATE

For the third year in a row, Duane has recorded a downloadable Christmas tune - available on ebflo.com. It's called "The Meaning Of Christmas" and is a ballad with just piano and twang!! Stay tuned; at one Christmas tune per year we'll have a full Christmas album by 2015!!

AROUND THE OVAL - THE SCRAMBLERS / ALONG CAME MARY - JERRY COLE & THE STINGERS

Jerry is one of the most prolific session guitarists on the L.A. scene. But this compilation covers his early years at Crown Records, where he was a 'member' of The Deuce Coupes, Scramblers, Hot Rodders, Blasters and others, mostly gathered together to cash in on the 'Hot Rod' fad of the early '60's. The only downside of these otherwise excellent tracks are the intrusive hot rod noises, but the excellent guitar work shines through. I was not aware that the Billy Boyd album "Twangy Guitars" was, in fact, Jerry. As usual with Ace, super liner notes, and there are no less than 55 artists listed (from Frank Sinatra to Elvis to Neil diamond and many in between who benefited from Jerry's guitar work. Recommended as a historical document if nothing else!

THE FIREBALLS

SAY I AM (WHAT I AM) / LIES / THUNDER 'N' LIGHNIN' (JIMMY GILMER & THE FIREBALLS) / CODINE (JIMMY GILMER) / LOUIE GO HOME (JANUARY 1966 VERSION) / COME TO ME (JIMMY GILMER) / (I DON'T WANT) YOUR KIND OF LOVE / NEVER YOU MIND / SOMEBODY STOLE MY WATERMELON (JIMMY GILMER) / YOU'RE SO GOOD TO ME / TOUGH TIMES (CHUCK THARP & THE FIREBALLS) / DANCING BY MYSELF / HUNGRY HUNGRY HUNGRY (FEBRUARY 1968 VERSION) (*) / WILL YOU LOVE ME TOMORROW / MEDLEY: SUMMERTIME BLUES – LAND OF 1,000 DANCES – SHOTGUN /

WHAT DO YOU DO (JIMMY GILMER & THE FIREBALLS) / LONESOME TEARS (JIMMY GILMER) / KANSAS CITY / APPRECIATE A GIRL (JIMMY GILMER) / HERE IT COMES AGAIN / BOTTLE OF WINE (AUGUST 1966 VERSION) (*) / ONE FINE DAY / BABY, WHAT'S WRONG? / ATLANTA GEORGIA STRAY / BOTTLE OF WINE (VIDEO CLIP) / GOIN' AWAY (VIDEO CLIP) / THREE SQUARES (VIDEO CLIP)

To me, The Fireballs were a very under rated group. The under-stated guitar of George Tomsco still has a huge effect on these vocal tracks. UK label Ace have so far issued 12 Fireballs' CD's – this is #13. Usual copious liner notes with label shots, posters and memorabilia. I quite enjoyed this, despite it being all-vocal!!

Oh, and there are 3 video tracks if you have Quick Time.

The pre Sugar Shack FIREBALLS were virtually an unknown act Down Under during the early 60's and provided a goldmine of very commercial, radio friendly material for local instrumental groups. Notably THE DENVERMEN, MIDNIGHTERS and MARKSMEN all recorded Tomsco penned tunes.

I finally procured a copy of this CD / DVD and here at 2G4W HQ, we wonder, along with others, why our own Kim H. wasn't asked to participate in this project, none the less, I echo the comments made in Kim's very complimentary review from "2 Good 4 Words" # 11. In my words – delightful!

Kim Humphreys

Kim has been offered a regular spot on a new Foxtel Television show, which is obviously all about the world of guitars and guitar music. Production begins in February. More info as it comes to hand.

With all things instrumental being for Kim, a passionate yet 'non-profit making' endeavour, he will join the ranks of The Billy Joel & Elton John Tribute Show in March / April. With this, comes the opportunity to travel Oz, and the world, enabling him to do the occasional instrumental gig wherever the show takes him, if and when opportunities arise.

These new career moves have necessitated a change in Kim's stage set up and resulted in the renewal of his exclusive arrangement with LINE 6, thus the advt. above.

Some readers may be aware that in a previous life, Kim was an Academy Award winning animation filmmaker. Please Don't Stand On My Sunshine, his very first short film has been digitally remastered and will feature some of his current music on the soundtrack. A limited edition 5.1 DVD version will be available. It will also be downloadable from his website and be included (CD rom) on the MERCEDES single. (Release date TBA.)

Kim will join his boyhood idol, ex Aztecs and Bee Gee's guitarist VINCE MELOUNEY for some selected shows later this year.

Speaking of all things 'Vince & The Aztecs' Pipeline has cited Kim's version of Over The Rainbow, as superb, avoiding the mine field of corn that most instro versions of this tune invariably wander into, courtesy of his emotion charged playing and exquisite slide work. BRYAN BROWNE

WITH A LITTLE HELP FROM HIS FRIENDS

Since wowing all and sundry at Shadoz 06 with his Chet Atkins and Jimmy Bryant library of licks, Bryan has gone on to earn the praise of Australia's most respected guitarists, including Michelle Rose, Stuie French and both Tommy & Phil Emmanuel.

A CD will soon be recorded, appearances at Tamworth (January 07) with Phil Emmanuel and The Feral Swing Cats are confirmed while a trip to Nashville's Chet Atkins Festival, (at the suggestion of Tommy Emmanuel) is all but locked in for June. 2G4W wishes Bryan all the best as he begins to climb the perilous ladder of guitar super stardom.

French Guitar Superstar, Jean-Pierre Danel sends us a boomerang!

Hi Geoff!

I am Jean-Pierre Danel. I was surfing on the net when I saw your review about my album Guitar Connection. Thanks for that!

Just a few comments on all what you wrote (despite there's some words I'm missing as my English is not perfect!) (Ed: It's MUCH better than my French! I have taken the liberty to change a few minor errors)

Guitar Connection is a very surprising project - and I am the first to be surprised.

As you may know if, as it seems, you looked at the website Sony made about me, I have been producing a lot of records in the last 17 years. I was always a guitarist, but only recorded a few albums here and there, without looking for a real career plan at all.

Last year, Sony asked me for some new original ideas, and I came up with an instrumental project. So unusual here!

Knowing that I was able to do that myself (being at the same time the producer and the artist), they accepted the idea of an instrumental guitar album, as a tribute to that kind of music. Nothing like that had been made in France for years. I suggested a DVD packed with it as well, with a section where I show some details about playing those standards.

After having cancelled the project 5 times, Sony changed its mind, and the album was finally released in July. It was, as you know, a huge N°1 hit (+ 150 000 copies now, gold in three weeks, and Sony expects soon a platinum disc for 200 000). I don't know the sales in Belgium, but it hit the N°3 spot there.

All that to tell you that this project was more a surprise than a long time thought marketed idea.

To record again all those hits was necessary to obtain a TV ad campaign, and only that was able to let know the guitar fans that the album was released, as no radio play that kind of stuff.

So that's the reason why all those hits are covered again - with 5 originals nevertheless. Because the strong TV ad cost is about 1.2 million Euros, we had to get the money back - so we needed hits.

We also had a partnership with the biggest hypermarket name, Carrefour, who organised a master class to win.

The sleeve was not what I would have wanted, but there again, Sony is the boss for the marketing side of the records - so I had to deal with it. I proposed several different things - all refused. I know them by heart, with the number of records I produced, but I tried as I was then involved as an artist as well. Anyway, this one proved to be efficient.

Reviews about the album are mostly good, with the exceptions of some people disappointed by the fact that there are not the original versions (they know that!) or that there were not music tabs in it (this will be soon changed). We can't please everyone, but I received thousands of emails with compliments and enthusiastic comments, asking for a volume 2. And sales speak for themselves.

I am currently recording a volume 2, with various material (McCartney, Yes, Eagles, AC/DC, Shadows, Beatles, Police, Morricone, etc., as well as some originals). It will be released in March 2007.

I invited some guests, including several musicians and a French superstar you may not know - but it will be an event here.

Also, I am just back from your beautiful country, where I duetted with Hank Marvin for a version of "Nivram". A real pleasure and an honour for me.

To comment your last reaction in your review, I am not sure that the fact I am younger than many instrumental stars makes a real difference. It's true that some blogs saw the light here and there, some with enthusiastic girls and women, but it always happens, no matter who you are, as long as you are seen on TV.

I just want to add that the super NZ model you mention with me is not a marketing idea. She's been my fiancée for 3 years, and supports me a lot on this side of my activities. I dedicated a track to her in the album. She's also an actress now, and it's just fun to share all that, not a promotional help for her or me. But I understand this can be seen as a show business thing. But what can we do? Working in this job makes you meet people in the same field of activities. That's just natural. We try to avoid that "people" aspect and focus on our work, and I even asked to some paparazzi not to publish photos on holidays in St Tropez with Sabine and I near my sports car last August, because it made a "show off" image, which is not true, as we were just visiting friends on a boat and hoped for some privacy. The thing is that, on one hand, people criticize that side of things, but on the other hand, it makes them dream. It something they like to hate I would say.

But I am mostly a producer and a musician, and don't look for my face in the gossip pages. Neither does Sabine. She is doing less modelling this year, and is currently promoting a successful movie and shooting another one, and concentrates on her work rather than people magazines we could work with - which we don't.

But having a super model / actress in its life makes people react (as for her: having a producer / musician can be a cliché, also it's less sexy!)

Going back to the album itself, I think it's good to see that this kind of music can hit the charts nowadays, and that's the main lesson for record companies: they don't know everything about the public taste, and they should remember this from time to time. Hank and I talked about that and we share the same kind of problems with the major companies, as they act the same everywhere. The artistic necessities and the music market obligations tend to have difficulties to deal with one another...

Anyway, recording this was a good fun, and that's what matters to me. I wasn't in the need of producing another hit record, but on the contrary, to be more involved and creative myself. You could think that covering hits is not that creative - that's right - but I play all that instead of just being the producer sitting in the studio, and that makes a change for me. Also, I wrote 5 songs and that was cool.

I hope the next volume will bring some originality in its approach. I still have to deal with Sony's expectations - fair, as they also spend a lot of money in this, along with me - but I try to find interesting things to do. If it's a success, maybe we can work on a volume 3... The maybe un-original hit covers are the price to pay to record here and there more original things...

All the best from a freezing Paris!

SURFIN THE NET

Instromania is a site well worth checking out. It originates in France, so the text is in French, but the discographies etc are in English.

In "2 Good 4 Words" #9 I reviewed Ed Matzenik's "Guitar Party". Now it can be heard on the net. Check out www.cdbaby.com/cd/edmatzenik for info. CD Baby also has numerous other great instrumentals, many of which I've never heard of. Mind-boggling!!

Check out Martin Cilia's new website www.martincilia.com Well worth a visit!!

Also see www.delightfulrain.com.au There's a two-minute trailer of the CD/DVD.

DISCOGRAPHIES

Over the years, I have amassed huge amounts of discographies and information on (mainly) instrumental artists. I have started to computerize lots of these discographies. If there are any you would like, just ask. Bear in mind, that it would be almost impossible to do the Shadows or Ventures!!

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Some subscriptions are now due. If you would like to subscribe or renew, please let me know as soon as possible. Subs are AU$30 Per Annum, for SIX Bi-monthly issues, postage (within Australia) paid. KIM HUMPHREYS has a well-deserved reputation for producing some of the best live and recorded guitar sounds in instrumental circles, and beyond. After numerous requests, he has agreed to share some of his tonal secrets with 2G4W readers in our next issue.

"ARID" Australian and New Zealand Rock Instrumental Discography

Our resident 'Peter Pan' art director, guitar wiz, Sydney correspondent and gig organiser (and all-round good bloke) Kim Humphreys is highlighted this time.

Kim is one of the few acts featured in "ARID" who has continued recording since the book was first published in 1995. So here is an updated version.

Previous issues of "ARID" have featured The Atlantics, Strangers, Peter Posa, Graeme Bartlett, The Joy Boys, Rob E.G., The Thunderbirds, The Denvermen, The Echomen, The Cherokees, The Chessmen and The Marksmen. Back issues are available.

The titles in lower case are vocals, whilst the titles in UPPER case are instrumentals. Any comments, additions or amendments are welcome.

HAPPY NEW YEAR FROM MARTIN (L) (Atlantics)
GEOFF(C) & KIM (R) (2G4W)

KIM HUMPHREYS

Kim honed his trade with Sydney groups Rick & The Bad Boys, Sect, Paper Grape, Hot Cottage, Stumble, Ted Mulry, Dutch Tilders, Johnny Farnham, Jeff St. John and The Kim Humphreys Band. Recordings from all these bands are floating around somewhere and plans are underway for a complete 'pre intro era' anthology CD. The Rick & The Bad Boys single on the Down Under label BAD BOY /LISTEN is currently a $400.00 collectors item, The Paper Grape EP in the same league while Hot Cottage singles are bringing over $100 apiece!

In 1980 Humphreys recorded his tribute to Australian instrumentals, BRAVE NEW WAVE. The LP featured Humphreys (Guitar), Bob Montgomery (Bass), Jeff Cripps and David John (Drums), Stuart Beck (Keyboards) and Michael Houghton (Sax). Recorded at Kim's Fly-By-Night Studios it features a very 'Star Wars' inspired Bombora plus original tunes Brandy And Dry and Chinese Bandit. Bombora b/w Brandy & Dry pre-empted the LP in 1979 as a single on the short lived XTO? label.

Kim then formed the three piece Great Dane with 'BNW' bass Player Bob Montgomery and ex Aliens drummer Rob Grosser, recording a self titled album for EMI, unique - as it featured a 45rpm single as the A side and 6 songs at 33rpm on the B side. Produced by Sherbet's Clive Shakespeare, tracks on this all-vocal affair were written by Kim.

In 1994 the CD version of BRAVE NEW WAVE LP appeared as SURFIN' GUITAR, dropping Chinese Bandit, Brandy & Dry, replacing WDR with a newer recording, adding Wedding Cake Island plus the perennial Apache, the latter featuring Gerry Anderson (Drums) and David Woods (Bass), members of Kim's 1992 group, The Rock & Roll Relics.

A 1992- 1995 stint with 'biker boogie band' Grog & Grumble, again with Bob Montgomery on bass, was followed in 1996 by Kim focusing all his attention on the club & pub 'covers' duo Now Hear This, a side project since 1986. Originally known as The Bex Bros, a name and repertoire re think was necessitated in 1989 by the fact that the duos till then, predominantly instrumental repertoire, did not sit well with promoters.

Since 2005 all of Kim's live performances have been solely dedicated to the instrumental cause.
